The Pumpkin Pie Show—The Conservatory

The Pumpkin Pie Show: Commencement has been a staple of NYC's theatrical landscape for over a decade. This installment is a one-women tour de force that received 5 stars from the Edmonton Journal. The New York Times calls the writing "sublime", Time Out New York has said of Hanna Cheek, in their Critics Pick review of Commencement, that she is "an actor of rare gifts...you have to snatch at every chance to see her onstage." You need to see this show.

Ausable Theatre

archy and mehitabel—MTC Up the Alley.

Archy the cockroach: "Little little creatures, out of all your billions, make great dragons that lie along the sky and war with the sunset and eat up the moon. Draw all the poison from the evil stars and spit it on the earth!"

Mehitabel the alley cat: "There are three good legs on old Mehitabel, and she will keep them dancing 'til the grim reaper slices two more of them off. Then she'll dance on one."

Tanya Elchuk & Amy Crnkovic

Heart-Strings—Rachel Brown Theatre

A surrealist adventure through irrational love in search of the long sought balance between reason and emotion. Physical theatre and live music with a dash of horror and a generous helping of laughs.

"A disarming, two-woman, clown show...a find"—Montreal Gazette

"this year's Montreal Fringe darlings...fun from start to finish"—Montreal City & Press

"whip-smart"—The Visitorium (Ottawa)

"worth the watch"—Eye Weekly (Toronto)

"Very best show that I saw...surprising and funny, but intense and smart too!"—Montreal Fringe Buzz
