Four on the Floor—Son of Warehouse

Captain's Log: Star date 4619...Sensors detected Fringers on the third planet. Holodeck simulators depict them as friendly, intelligent and curious.

Transported six crew to the planet with phasers on stun. First Officer Spook employed mind melds to determine their potential threat to the United Federated Planets.

All offered a modified Vulcan salute and told him to blow it out his wormhole. They had better things to do, like proceed at warp speed to Four on the Floor at Venue #5.

A Fish's Wish—Kids Venue SCD

With an original script, catchy songs, and stunningly bright and colourful underwater characters and sets, this production literally glows.

Audiences will be astonished as the use of black light brings the fish puppets to life while completely disguising the actors behind them.

The captivating story of A Fish's Wish is ideal for children as it encourages them to pursue their dreams, all the while reinforcing the importance of perseverance and selflessness.

Paul the Octopus says this show will be a hit!

LADYVISION!—Son of Warehouse

This is the story of...a lady. Not just any lady; the last one. Don't know how it happened really but, at this time, in this place, on this planet, this is the last lady...and that is all.

To some, this ethereal solitude would be very uncomfortable, even unsafe, but to this lady, this last lady, every day is her birthday, every day is her show, every day is LADYVISION! Cue the dance music already!
