The Tempest—Kids Venue

A violent storm has left us stranded on a deserted island! The only survivors are Antonio, Duke of Milan; Sebastian, my brother; Gonzalo, my counselor; and myself. Alas, Ferdinand, my son, lies somewhere beneath the waves.

Strange spirits and monsters torment us, even uttering the name of Prospero, Antonio's long-dead brother! Please rescue us from our terror and misery! Send ships to scour the sea at once! Whosoever finds us will find himself rewarded.

Your King,
Alonso of Naples

Stretchmarks—WAG

From the producer who brought you Breast Friends (5 Stars and Sold-Out Houses! Winnipeg Fringe 2010)

Chill out with some Hot Babes at the Fringe's newest venue—The Muriel Richardson Auditorium at the WAG!

Fall in love, check. Get married, check. Have babies, check.

Now What? HELP! I don't know what I'm doing! I married an agenda, not a person!

Get your Groove back at Stretchmarks! A theatrical revue about Motherhood and Sex! (Yes, Moms HAVE SEX!)

Featuring Comedy by Kim Zeglinski & Heather Witherden, Burlesque by Miss Robin Red Breast, and Music by Harmony Parent.

Baggage.—Alloway Hall

We've all been stranded in airports. That's where we find Ava and Noah; powerless, vulnerable and eating McDonalds. Unable to get to where they are supposed to be, they open up to one another. They find a freedom in anonymity.

There's no need to keep up with appearances with those who don't know what you are supposed to look like...

Green with Envy Productions is proud to make its Winnipeg Fringe debut with Baggage., playing at Alloway Hall.

Fools for Love—MTYP Mainstage

Sheshells: "You have a date tonight?"

Rocket: "No. You?"

Sheshells: "No...hey! Let's hang out! What could possibly go wrong?"

The Rocket and Sheshells origin story—an action/romantic-comedy in red-nose, directed by Canadian clowning legend Jan Henderson.

Hit of the 2012 Toronto Clown Theatre Festival ("stellar duo...virtuosic"), and recipients of a galaxy of stars for last year's acclaimed Sofa So Good.
